1 person has recommended Rachael

"Rachael and I worked within the same practice Area albiet I was in Local Government , she was Private Practice. I found Rachel always to be very professional , and able to deal with difficult clients and situations whilst at court . She was always well presented and at all times extremly thorough and clued up on the legal aspects and options which may be available to her client (s). I was always a pleasure to work with her , especially because she always returned my calls !."
